

Useful Free VR Apps (for use with Cardboard)

Virtual Speech—for public speaking and interview training

Google Arts and Culture—look for virtual tours of museums, historic locations, etc.

Google Expeditions—hundreds of preset field trips which can be partnered with a tablet

Life VR—short VR experiences that can be downloaded or streamed

InCell VR—game-style exploration of the inside of a cell

Mel Chemistry—includes VR visualizations of chemical combinations

Jaunt VR—various cinematic VR productions focused on news, entertainment, etc.

RYOT—linked with Huffington Post, mostly news or political VR videos

UNVR—dealing with global issues, these longer form VR videos are well made

Useful Sources of 360 Content on YouTube

Vrtually There—USA Today

Daily 360—The New York Times

Within

Jovrnalism—Annenberg School (USC)

RYOT—Huffington Post

National Geographic 360 Videos

Condition One VR

Epic 360

BBC News in 360 Video

NASA

Jet Propulsion Laboratory